

Down the Road to Emmaus

by Scott T. Wilkinsont © 1990

D
Once two disciples were walking down the road;
G
They were feeling mighty down and out.
A7 G D
Their hopes were all dashed about; they were full of fear and doubt.
When all of a sudden along came a stranger,
G
They didn't even catch His name.
A7 G D D7
But since He came walking their lives have never been the same.

Chorus:

G D
So now we're walking down the road to Emmaus
A7 D D7
And we're talking about the One who died.
G D
Yes, we're walking down the road to Emmaus
A7 G D
And the Lord is right by our side.

Soon they asked the stranger to join them at the table;
They asked if He would bless the bread.
He lifted it overhead, and this is what the stranger said:
"I am the bread that came down from heaven,
I was broken on the cross for you.'
Suddenly they knew Him and I think you might know Him, too.

....Chorus

When two or more disciples will come and walk together
And fellowship in Jesus' name,
They'll feel the Holy Spirit's flame, as His saving grace they proclaim.
So come join me sisters and come join me brothers,
There's room enough here for you.
And when we break the bread I'll pray that you will see Him, too.

...Chorus
